Closing Policy

If the library cannot be staffed, the library will be closed. This determination will be made by the library director after all attempts have been made to adequately staff the library. The library director will determine what is adequate staffing for each situation.

In severe weather or other conditions, if the library director feels there is a public safety concern, they may make the decision to close the library. if the staff cannot safely get to or remain in the library, the library will close.

~~This determination will be made by the library director after all attempts have been made to adequately staff the library. The library director will determine what is adequate staffing for each situation.~~ Every effort shall be made to inform local media outlets of any such closing as soon as possible with enough time to provide notice to any patrons attempting to visit the library. The library board will be informed of the closing in a reasonable amount of time.

If a staff member cannot get to work or remain in the library due to concerns for their safety, they are excused without prejudice.

Closing for other reasons, such as construction work, repairs or loss of power will be made by the library director, in conjunction with the library board if time allows.
